

Research Unit - Oral Assessment

Student:
Standard: I can identify a reliable source of information.
Notes:
Beginning	Developing	Applying	Extending
I can analyze who's behind the information and explain how it impacts its reliability.	I can explain why a source's use of evidence is valid and whether or not it makes it a more reliable source.	I can compare and contrast the source to other texts on the same topic, identifying the strengths and weaknesses of each.	I can analyze bias in a source , pointing out words, images, statistics, etc. that demonstrate the bias in the text.

Research Unit - Oral Assessment

Student:
Standard: I can identify a reliable source of information.
Notes:
Beginning	Developing	Applying	Extending
I can analyze who's behind the information and explain how it impacts its reliability.	I can explain why a source's use of evidence is valid and whether or not it makes it a more reliable source.	I can compare and contrast the source to other texts on the same topic, identifying the strengths and weaknesses of each.	I can analyze bias in a source , pointing out words, images, statistics, etc. that demonstrate the bias in the text.